Regular Membership

Any agency of any state, commonwealth, or territory of the United States which controlled substances responsibility is eligible for membership. "Controlled substances responsibility" includes the scheduling of controlled substances; the issuance of controlled substances registrations (or approval for such issuance by another agency); enforcement of state controlled substances acts; responsibility for the administrative modification of controlled substances registrations by means of suspension, revocation, cancellation, probational or conditional issuance or continuance of registration, or the responsibility for issuance of any professional license which gives the agency authority to issue, modify, suspend, revoke, or otherwise affect the controlled substances activity of the person or entity licensed. Each member state, regardless of the number of agencies having membership, is entitled to one vote for the state. Representatives of Regular Member agencies may hold office in the organization.

Associate Membership

Any government agency or organization with a stated interest in drug control, which agency is not eligible for membership as set out above, may become an associate member upon payment of the same fee as is set for regular membership in the Association. An associate member shall not be eligible to vote on Association matters or to hold office in the Association, but may serve as an ad hoc member on Association committees when requested by the President of the Association. (Note: Effective 7/1/2021 Associate Members are limited to attendance by up to two individuals of an organization in periodic webinars offered by NASCSA. Additional attendees from an Associate Member will incur a nominal charge per webinar).

Associate Individual Membership

Any individual or individual representative of an entity, with a stated interest in drug control, may become an associate individual member upon application and subsequent majority vote of the executive committee and payment of a fee not to exceed that for regular membership. An associate individual member shall not be eligible to vote on Association matters or to hold office in the Association, but may serve as ad hoc members on Association committees when requested by the President of the Association.
