President's Message

It was so good to see everyone at the conference in San Antonio. For many, this was the first in person event since the pandemic started. The last couple of years have been trying to say the least. Like many organizations, we had to adapt in a virtual environment. Joe Fontenot and the board did a great job leading us through these trying times. Our executive director, Kathy, always works hard, but she went above and beyond to keep NASCOSA going. New life was breathed into the webinar series as Kathy became a zoom master. The committees worked hard on fresh content that inspired and educated.

As an association, we also want to acknowledge and thank our sponsors. NASCOSA relies on both their financial support as well as their participation. So many of our sponsors also serve on committees. Active and engaged for the betterment of all. Their ideas and participation is invaluable. We could not do any of this without them. In a time when the limits of budgets are tested, our sponsors remained, and we are grateful for their support.

All of our committees never missed a beat holding meetings each month as they saw to the work of the association. Just as the drug epidemic did not stop, neither did we. All of us together as an association dedicated to making the lives of our loved ones, friends, family, and community better.

So many of you took the time to comment on the success of the annual conference. The program committee did a fabulous job making this conference one of the best in recent memory. This is a great reminder of what can be achieved when we work together.

I was excited to see the many friends and colleagues I have come to know over the years at conference. And encouraged by the new members and first-time attendees. This is always good, and I hope to see more of this in the coming years.

I am looking forward to working with the executive board and all of you on this year's events. Excited at what the future will hold for NASCOSA and more importantly, us as friends and colleagues.

On behalf of the executive board, wishing you a safe and happy holiday season. We look forward to seeing you all at our next conference.

Warmest Regards,
Alan McGill, President, NASCOSA

delegated to the DEA. In March 2021, DEA sent a letter to NASCSA requesting assistance in obtaining PDMP data for the purpose of establishing its aggregate production quota, pursuant to 21 CFR 1303.11(b) (6). NASCSA, in collaboration with Bamboo Health, established a reporting framework that could be utilized by approximately 40 state, county, and territorial PDMPs. In an effort to encourage participation by all state PDMPs, Bamboo Health has provided a sample of the report and specifications for use by any state who wishes to help the DEA meet their statutory requirement. Please see the attachment for more information. Check back shortly for contact information for technical guidance from Bamboo Health. Thank you to all of the states who have assisted or plan to assist the DEA in fulfilling their obligation.
